

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Please be sure to air a pro-Kerry
program like
"Going Upriver"
shortly after, to be FAIR. Thank
you. This is the only justifiable way
to serve the public interest and be fair to our democratic system. I believe the FCC demands of the Public
Airwaves denizens
like yourself (Sinclair) media.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen
media ownership
rules, not weaken them. They show why
the license renewal

process needs to involve more than a
returned postcard.
Thank you.
